Purpose of Endowment Fund

Contributions from supporters of the school make a Christian education affordable for young families. While regular donations to the school's operating fund are important, contributions to the school's Endowment Fund serves a different purpose. Essentially, the Endowment Fund:

- Enables the current generation to make an investment into the future of the school
- Creates a pool of funds designed to provide ongoing financial support
- Helps maintain stability in the school's operating budget
- Ensures that the Christian education that this generation enjoys will be affordable for our children and grandchildren

How To Participate

Send your contribution payable to Anabaptist Foundation, a 501(c)(3) public foundation, which serves as the trustee of the Terre Hill Mennonite Endowment Fund.

Donors may make tax-deductible gifts during their lifetimes or make arrangements to support the Endowment Fund by making a bequest in their will.

Appreciated assets (such as stock, mutual fund shares, or real estate) can be contributed, often with significant tax benefits for the donor. For more information or to donate, please contact:

Anabaptist Foundation

The mission of Anabaptist Foundation is to assist the brotherhood in channeling material resources within the Kingdom of Christ and to provide stewards with financial counsel consistent with conservative Anabaptist beliefs and values.

Anabaptist Foundation is a public foundation governed by an independent 10-member board. The board is deliberately drawn from different sectors of our conservative Anabaptist community, and reflects a mix of business experience, professional training, pastoral experience, and nonprofit administration. In addition, an advisory group of 40 members provides counsel to the board. The same board, as well as staff, also administers Anabaptist Foundations sister organization, Anabaptist Financial.
